Sayings of Kentucky Editors

The action of the Clark county jury in lining B. F. French $5,000 for spiriting away witnesser in the damage sult of Mrs. J. B. Mureum, says the Conrier-dour. nal, will be generally approved. There is no question whelever us to French's guilt, and he may consider himself furtunate in keep ing out of juil. The case in which he officiated as expecter of witnesses was that in which, thepite his lidhers, another Clark rounty lover and rul the system of all bile jury found his pat, Jim Hargis, without producing ourdesant effects, guilty of the murder of J. R. Justice of the Peac Adam Slook, New Marchin.

The residutions adopted by the Republicans of Breathitt county, or rather by the vitizens of that county that mot in convention at Jackson on Saturday, say The Lexington Herald, show the thing of the feeling of the und a of the people of the county. This is the first convention held by the Republicans of the county since the assassination of Pex. Cucknill and Muteum, and the first result tions adopted with anti-issassina. tion as the issue of the earquign I'pun the lines set out in the resp lations, the people expect to make the tight of the compaign, a camprign which promises to be inter esting in the extreme, and of me mentions importance to the people of that county.
